Suggestions for Improvement:	Ashley really stepped up this week. I was out with an injured back for three days. We ended up not having very involved subs. Ashley basically took over the teaching while I was gone. This was a great teaching experience! She is also developing her classroom management style well. She respects the kids and colleagues.

She was always well prepared to teach and if things changed, she was able to be flexible last minute. I can't wait for you to start your career. You will do great!!
